

WHAT IS CLAIMED IS:

1. A pair of eyeglasses, comprising:
  - a pair of temples;
  - a pair of first lenses;
  - 5 a pair of endpieces having rear ends coupled to the temples, each of the endpieces including a horizontal first hole at a forward end for permitting a fastener to drive into to fasten the first endpiece and the first lens together, and two elongate first slots above and under the first hole respectively;
  - a pair of nose pads;
  - 10 a bridge interconnected the first lenses, the bridge including two horizontal second holes at both ends for permitting two fasteners to drive into to fasten the bridge and the first lens together, and two elongate second slots above and under the second hole respectively; and
  - a pair of second lenses each including an inner recess snugly fitted onto
  - 15 the second slots and an outer recess snugly fitted onto the first slots so that the first and the second lenses are closely attached together.
2. The eyeglasses of claim 1, wherein the first lenses are myopic, hypermetropic, or presbyopic lenses.
3. The eyeglasses of claim 1, wherein the second lenses are tinted lenses.
- 20 4. The eyeglasses of claim 3, wherein the tinted lenses are made of plastic material.
5. The eyeglasses of claim 1, further comprising a plurality of plastic caps each placed on the first or second hole to cover the fastener.